Expanded Access to Life-Saving Resources: By distributing Narcan to residents, the program intends to equip more individuals with the ability to respond to overdose emergencies, reducing fatalities and enhancing community safety. Empowerment and Engagement of Residents: The initiative hopes to foster a sense of responsibility among residents, encouraging them to become active participants in overdose prevention and response. Reduced Stigma Around Narcan Use and Opioid Overdoses: The PSA and Narcan distribution aim to normalize conversations about substance abuse, reducing the stigma associated with opioid use and encouraging more people to seek help or be prepared for emergencies. Measuring and Tracking Impact: To assess the effectiveness of the program, the following metrics and methods will be used: Narcan Distribution Data: Track the number of Narcan kits distributed to residents, identifying the level of community interest and engagement. PSA Engagement Metrics: Monitor website traffic, video views, and social media interactions to measure how many residents viewed the PSA and how far-reaching the awareness campaign was.

20	Please explain how this program will address opioid use disorder and any co-occurring substance use disorders or mental health conditions through evidence-based or evidence-informed practices or strategies.	The Chatham Township program addresses opioid use disorder (OUD) and co-occurring substance use or mental health disorders through several evidence-based and evidence-informed strategies. These practices are rooted in the understanding that opioid addiction is a multifaceted issue requiring both preventive and responsive measures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Harm Reduction through Narcan Distribution Evidence-based Strategy: Narcan (naloxone) is an FDA-approved opioid antagonist that has been extensively validated as an effective harm reduction tool for reversing opioid overdoses. By providing Narcan to residents, the program directly addresses the immediate, life-threatening effects of opioid use disorder. Impact on Co-Occurring Disorders: While Narcan primarily targets opioid overdose, its distribution fosters a community-wide response to overdose incidents. This helps reduce the stigma associated with OUD, encouraging individuals to seek help for both addiction and co-occurring mental health or substance use disorders. 2. Public Awareness and Education (PSA) Evidence-informed Strategy: The PSA educates residents about the signs of opioid overdose, how to administer Narcan, and the importance of timely intervention. Research shows that increasing awareness about overdose prevention and treatment options enhances public health outcomes by reducing overdose deaths. Impact on Co-Occurring Disorders: Educating the public helps to normalize discussions around addiction and mental health, encouraging people with opioid use disorder and co-occurring conditions (e.g., anxiety, depression) to seek comprehensive treatment. Awareness initiatives can also reduce the stigma that often prevents individuals from seeking help for mental health conditions. 3. Community Engagement and Support Evidence-informed Practice: Community-based programs that actively involve residents in harm reduction and support efforts have been shown to improve public health outcomes. By distributing Narcan and encouraging open dialogue through the PSA, the program builds a supportive, informed community that recognizes the complexity of addiction. Impact on Co-Occurring Disorders: Engaging the community can lead to stronger local networks of support, where individuals with OUD and co-occurring mental health conditions feel safer seeking resources and help. This can promote pathways to integrated care that address both addiction and mental health needs simultaneously.

21	Please identify the procurement method utilized for this program, describe the procurement process, and explain why the procurement method identified was used for this program.	Procurement Process The township first identified the needs of the program, such as hiring a video production company for the PSA and acquiring Narcan kits for distribution. The township determines the quantity and specifications (e.g., type of Narcan, production services). Vendor Selection: For the PSA Production: The township contacted a local video production company directly to request quotes. After reviewing their capabilities, costs, and past work, the township chose a vendor based on price, quality, and availability. For Narcan Purchase: The township received free Narcan kits from the State of NJ. Purchase Orders/Contracts: Once vendors are selected, the township issues a purchase order or contract specifying the services to be provided (e.g., filming, editing the PSA). Payment and Delivery: Upon completion of the PSA production or the receipt of the Narcan kits, payment is made according to the terms in the contract.
